Adlai Bridson-Boyczuk

Toronto, Ontario
(647) 772-0824
adlaibridsonboyczuk@gmail.com
https://github.com/boyczuk

OBJECTIVE

To secure a full-time internship program in computer science or related field; to build my skillset & knowledge.

EDUCATION

Queen's University, Kingston — Bachelor of Computing (Honours)
Dean's Honour List (2021-2022)
September 2020 - PRESENT

Harbord Collegiate Institute, Toronto — High School Diploma (88% overall average)
September 2017 - June 2020

National Lifeguard Service, Toronto — Lifeguard and Safety Instructor

March 2018 – March 2022

EXPERIENCE

Queen's University Algorithmic Trading Team, Kingston— Developer/Team member
September 2022 - Present
Working in a team to plan and develop a Quantitative Trading Algorithm to run on QuantConnect trading platform.

St. Alban's Boys & Girls Club, Toronto— Camp Counselor
June 2019 - August 2019
Organised and lead camp activities for large groups of kids

Junior Achievers Canada, Toronto— Scotiabank Company Program

September 2018 - June 2019
Worked in a team building a merchandise company. As well as developing the website used to market and sell the products.

Red Cross Swimming, Toronto— Assistant Water Safety Instructor
September 2018- December 2018
Teaching kids to swim at St. Alban's Community Pool

SKILLS

Proficient in Python, Java, JavaScript, C, C#, and Bash scripting

Experienced in:

 - git, and Linux command line fundamentals

 - Flask web framework, MongoDB, ReactJS, and Docker

 - Agile development cycle (Scrum)

Strong Interpersonal Communications skills

RELEVANT COURSES / CLASSWORK

Computer Logic modelling project - (Logic for Computer Science)

Full stack housing rental web application

Object-oriented Programming

System-Level Programming

Operating Systems & System Architecture

Data Structures

Software Quality Assurance

CLUBS / INTERESTS

Strong interest in software development, game design, Artificial Intelligence, and network security

Member of Queen's Varsity Overwatch Team

Queen's University Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Club